Questions 149-150 refer to the following notice.

Notice to All Library Users

Please note that over the next month, the West Springs Library will be moving from its current location to a much larger space that will allow us to provide more and better services to our users. We have signed a lease to occupy the former Benchmark Cinema building on the corner of Wentworth Rise and 9th Avenue, and we will be renovating the structure before relocating our collection there. This building is in a more central location, which will allow us to reach more library users.

Unfortunately, the process of moving will create some temporary disturbances to our services. Users will not be able to borrow any items from the library after April 6, and we ask that all items currently out on loan be returned by April 13. After this, the library will be closed from April 14 until May 1, when our new location is expected to open. We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause. The nearest public library available to you during the closure will be the facility in Coach Hill.

Thank you for your understanding.

Calgary Library Services

149. What is the purpose of the notice?

- (A) To announce a change of location for a facility
- (B) To report the permanent closure of a library
- (C) To remind users about book return policies
- (D) To inform members of an increase in library fines

150. What is indicated about the West Springs Library?

- (A) Its current building will be used as a cinema in the future.
- (B) The closest public library to it is in Coach Hill.
- (C) Its renovations will last over three months.
- (D) The facility is located in downtown Calgary.

Questions 151-152 refer to the following letter.

March 3

Judy Mayer
Whole Nutrition Pet Foods, Inc.
1930 Industrial Street
Lawton, OK 73501

Dear Ms. Mayer,

I am writing to apply for the position of manufacturing plant electrician for your Lawton location. I have been a certified electrician for 15 years. I recently left my job of three years at the Oklahoma City facility of Loyalty Limited to relocate to Lawton. I am now seeking employment and your advertised job would be a good fit for me.

I worked on the general electrical needs of the factory and its equipment for my most recent employer. My assignments required a lot of problem solving as well as electrical knowledge. The equipment setup and adjustments I carried out regularly involved computer technology.

About eight years ago, I earned an associate's degree in computer technology so that I could work in the capacity of an equipment electrician. Since then, I have kept up with developments in the field through training courses. I have included more details about my accomplishments in my résumé, which is enclosed with this letter.

Given my latest experience working at a company that manufactures similar products to yours, I think I could make an easy transition. In fact, it is highly likely that your company uses much the same equipment.

I thank you for your consideration and do hope you will contact me for an interview at rilaney@postmail.com or at 555-9483.

Sincerely,

Rick Delaney

151. Why was the letter written?

- (A) To request a transfer to Oklahoma City
- (B) To apply for a technical position
- (C) To register for a degree program
- (D) To inquire if a job is still available

152. What does Mr. Delaney suggest about Loyalty Limited?

- (A) It has employed him for the past 15 years.
- (B) It produces products for animals.
- (C) It offers financial support to staff earning degrees.
- (D) It operates a branch plant in Lawton.

| Overall, I am quite pleased with my experience at your hotel. I did have a small issue after check-in, though. I had several large bags, but the front desk clerk informed me that a bellhop was not currently available. My room was clean and spacious. However, upon entering I noticed that, for some reason, the air conditioner was turned down to a chilly 16 degrees Celsius. The indoor pool was fantastic and very relaxing, but I had a hard time getting in touch with staff on a few occasions when asking about where to pick up and dispose of pool towels. |          |                               |       |

Steam Railway Jamboree – Friday, May 2 to Sunday, May 4

As always, the first weekend in May will see our annual Steam Railway Jamboree take place. The Concord to Marlborough steam railway was first built in 1847 and fell out of use in the early 20th century. But the tracks are still in place, and once a year the Massachusetts Historical Preservation Society spends three days running the traditional trains through the beautiful landscape.

Trains will run through seven historic stations, departing from Concord every hour. You can get on and off wherever you like, and there are great hiking trails available from Maynard and Hudson Stations. Or take the train to Marlborough station, at the end of the line, where a wide range of vendors will be selling food and drinks. Entertainment will be provided throughout the carriages, and we encourage visitors to arrive in 19th century costumes!

Tickets are available in advance at www.massivehistory.com or can be bought at Concord Station. Passes are valid for unlimited rides on the day of purchase, and prices are $14 for adults and $7 for children.

160. Why was the notice written?

- (A) To advertise membership in a historical society
- (B) To announce an upcoming regional event
- (C) To explain a change to transit regulations
- (D) To provide summer train service updates

162. What can visitors do during the first weekend of May?

- (A) Participate in a charity fundraiser near Hudson Station
- (B) Enjoy refreshments at a train's final destination
- (C) Borrow historical costumes at the event venue
- (D) Purchase souvenirs at Concord Station

161. What is indicated about the steam railway?

- (A) It only operates on a special occasion.
- (B) It is funded by a history preservation group.
- (C) It recently renovated its facilities.
- (D) It offers a discount to the elderly.

The Watertown Recreation Committee invites you to join
The Fourth Annual Rock River Walking Challenge

Saturday, April 16, 9 A.M. to 1 P.M.

Each year, this race is organized by the City of Watertown as a way to promote community cooperation and to celebrate Watertown's heritage. Open to people of all ages, the event promises a day of fun in the great outdoors. The main event will be followed by an afternoon of merriment at the Jefferson County Festival Grounds, where locals and visitors alike can enjoy good food, live music performances, and a selection of beverages from the state's finest breweries. For the young and young-at-heart, games and activities will be hosted by volunteers from the Anne Witmer Children's Foundation, which will also be providing on-site childcare facilities.

To Join:

Simply sign up before 9 A.M. on the day of the event.

Participation costs are $10 for individuals or $5 for those participating in our group/team event.

Children under 12 may participate for free.

Cash prizes will be given to the individual and group that finish in first place.

And others finishing in the top 10 will receive gift vouchers from local businesses.

All participants will receive a commemorative T-shirt.

If you would like to organize a team through your business, family, school, or other group, please contact the program coordinator before April 16. A Walking Challenge Support Kit will be provided for each group, containing a guide, health forms, and handouts that you may distribute to your group's members.

There May be Hope for Small Regional Retailers After All!

By Doris Bentley

In the highly competitive world of retail sales, it's difficult for inexperienced entrepreneurs to turn a profit when the cost of renting a store or shop is so high. But regional retailers don't need to look any further now than the Bradford Retail Cooperative building, opening on March 1. — [1] —.

The cooperative is located in the building formerly occupied by the Mega-B-Mart superstore on the outskirts of Bradford City. In partnership with the city government, Phoenix-Star Properties has updated the structure and renovated it to house 160 small retail booths. Director of Phoenix-Star, Brenda Nixon, said, "the old structure was an eyesore ever since the store it once held went bankrupt. — [2] —. Through a very small investment, we have been able to revitalize the building into a location that is not only useful to the community but will help improve local economic conditions as well."

Phoenix-Star Properties provided half the funds for the structural changes, and the rest came from the city development budget, which is funded by local taxes. — [3] —. "We are really excited about the opening! And given Phoenix-Star's incredible success doing similar projects with other abandoned buildings in locations across the country, I am sure we will experience the same popularity here," said city government spokesperson, Beatrice Guzman.

The retail units will be available for rent to artisans, craftsmen, and private businesses owners from the region. With rental rates starting at as low as $500 per month, Phoenix-Star has confirmed that 90 percent of the spaces have already been filled. It seems clear that the Bradford Retail Cooperative building is already popular with local entrepreneurs. — [4] —.

168. What is the topic of the article?

- (A) A property development project
- (B) A city's decline in construction
- (C) A retail branch closure
- (D) An increase in regional rents

169. What is indicated about Phoenix-Star Properties?

- (A) It has been contracted by Bradford City on several occasions.
- (B) It has transformed some vacant structures into retail facilities.
- (C) It provided the majority of the investment capital for the project.
- (D) It will complete its renovation work in three weeks.

170. What is NOT true about the Bradford Retail Cooperative building?

- (A) It has already secured tenants for many of its units.
- (B) It will house numerous small businesses.
- (C) It will be rented by the city government.
- (D) It was partially financed by local taxes.

171. In which of the positions marked [1], [2], [3], and [4] does the following sentence best belong?

"However, it still remains to be seen whether local shoppers will like the place as much."

- (A) [1]
- (B) [2]
- (C) [3]
- (D) [4]

Questions 172-175 refer to the following text message chain.

-  Alison Cambie 4:12 P.M. Just finished the first day at the Sacramento Annual Job Fair. With only three of us at the company's booth, there were more visitors than we could handle. Are any of you willing to help out tomorrow? We will receive the overtime pay rate for the hours we work.
- Justin Bostwick 4:15 P.M. I can lend you a hand. But I am only available in the morning because I have an important errand in the afternoon.
- Reena Kumar 4:15 P.M. Sorry, but I have to inspect a job site for one of our clients. Apparently, there is a problem that could delay our construction of their building.
- Angus O'Hara 4:17 P.M. I have nothing urgent planned for tomorrow. What time do I need to be at the conference center?
-  Alison Cambie 4:19 P.M. I understand, Reena, and good luck with that! And thanks to you others for volunteering. The doors of the exhibit center open to visitors at 10. Please make sure you arrive early to help set up.
- Justin Bostwick 4:20 P.M. I'll be there 30 minutes before the event starts.
- Angus O'Hara 4:21 P.M. Do we need entry tickets?
-  Alison Cambie 4:22 P.M. Oh, thanks for reminding me. I will leave them for you at the administrative office located near the main entrance.

Questions 176-180 refer to the following e-mails.

To: Janice Vespino <jvesp@farlington.net>
From: Mike Duff <mduff@farlington.net>
Date: February 3
Subject: Account information

Hi Janice,

This is Mike from Information Technology Services. After you gave me your list of newly hired employees yesterday, I created usernames and passwords for them. Before I finish setting up their personal account pages, however, I want to confirm that all their names and corresponding job titles are correct. Here is the information I have:

|                                                  |
|--------------------------------------------------|
| John Firth: Personnel Associate                  |
| Margret Wurst: Account Executive                 |
| Leslie Yang: Assistant to the Marketing Director |
| Fred Braxton: Junior Personnel Associate         |
| Jamie Martinez: Intern                           |

I need to make sure I have their correct job positions, as those details determine what information each person has access to. For example, an account executive will be able to view our database of clients' e-mails, whereas an intern would not be allowed to see that information. Please let me know at your earliest convenience what changes, if any, are needed.

As soon as I hear back from you, I can get to work on the account pages and have them up and running in just a few hours. Once that is done, each employee will need to log in with the temporary password I will send to their company e-mail accounts. They will then be prompted to enter a new password, which must be eight characters long, containing a mixture of numbers and letters. You may also want to recommend that they change their passwords quite regularly.

Best Regards,

Mike Duff

To: Mike Duff <mduff@farlington.net>
From: Janice Vespino <jvesp@farlington.net>
Date: February 4
Subject: Re: Account information

Hi Mike,

Thanks for the message you sent yesterday. All of the information regarding job titles is correct. Please go ahead with your assignment, and let me know when the personal pages are running.

However, you mentioned that interns do not have access to our client e-mail database. Generally, this is policy, but I would like to authorize an exception. The intern we have selected is actually going to be sending a significant number of e-mails to our clients, so it would help if she had all their contact information on hand and could view past communications. I can make her sign a confidentiality agreement if necessary.

I do have one further request for you, though. Could you make sure that these new employees will be able to log on to their account pages in the NetSurfer Web browser? I know we've had trouble accessing account pages with that browser, but as it is installed on most office computers now, please make certain there are no similar issues for the new staff.

I appreciate your checking in with me.

Best,

Janice Vespino
Director of personnel

176. Why did Mr. Duff write to Ms. Vespino?
- (A) To inform her of some new employees
  - (B) To check some information regarding new staff
  - (C) To update her login name and password
  - (D) To announce the cancellation of her account
177. What do Mr. Firth and Mr. Braxton have in common?
- (A) They have signed a confidentiality agreement.
  - (B) They will both work for Ms. Vespino.
  - (C) They have worked on the same project before.
  - (D) They were hired to do temporary work.
178. In the first e-mail, the word "prompted" in paragraph 3, line 3, is closest in meaning to
- (A) convinced
  - (B) hastened
  - (C) instructed
  - (D) activated
179. What does Ms. Vespino indicate in her message?
- (A) She discovered errors in the list of names provided.
  - (B) She will be directly supervising more than one department.
  - (C) She needs Mr. Martinez to install a browser on new office computers.
  - (D) She wants Mr. Martinez to have access to clients' e-mails.
180. What is mentioned about the company's user account pages?
- (A) They are set up by employees' direct supervisors.
  - (B) They automatically record login and password information.
  - (C) They were sometimes inaccessible using a particular Web program.
  - (D) They list privileges and benefits provided to each staff member.

Questions 181-185 refer to the following article and e-mail.

New Peckham Gift Store Aims For Quality Above All

The latest addition to the up-and-coming area of Peckham is London Gifts. Opened just three weeks ago, the store sells a variety of products created by independent artists, craftspeople, and publishers from across the country. The store primarily specializes in books, artwork, and clothing—but everything has a British theme that appeals to locals as well as tourists.

Most of the goods sold so far have been from London-based companies, but the shop has already begun expanding its offerings, selling products from Finlay Street Books of Birmingham, Southern Clothing of Southampton, and the Manchester-based artist John Stamp. London Gifts manager Stephanie Blanc is planning to increase the variety even more in the future, giving shoppers an even greater selection of unique souvenirs and gift items.

“There are already a lot of stores aimed at tourists in London,” said Blanc, “but they tend to sell mass-produced items. Our aim at London Gifts is to sell well-designed, beautifully crafted pieces that people will be interested in for years to come after they return home.”

London Gifts can be found at 12 Goldsmith Road, a 10-minute walk from Queens Road station, and is open Monday through Saturday from 9 A.M. to 8 P.M.

From: Sarah Broadhurst <sarah@oceanside.co.uk>
Subject: Business proposal
Date: February 3

Dear Ms. Blanc,

My name is Sarah Broadhurst, and I run a small business called Oceanside Woodworks. We are based a few buildings down from one of your suppliers, Southern Clothing, and it was the manager of that business who gave me your e-mail address.

At Oceanside Woodworks, we make a number of products—including coasters, placemats, and artistic pieces—and many of them would complement the selection you currently sell in your store. In particular, we have a range of products with pictures of characters from classic British books engraved on them. I have enclosed our catalog for this year so that you can get some idea of the merchandise we produce.

I am always looking for retailers willing to sell our quality products in their establishments and believe that a partnership could be of benefit to both our businesses. If you are interested in discussing this possibility further, I would be happy to travel up to London next week with some samples to show you. Please let me know by e-mail or by calling me at 555-6366.

Thank you for your consideration, and I hope to hear from you soon.

Sincerely,

Sarah Broadhurst
Proprietor
Oceanside Woodworks

- (D) It plans to launch more branches.

182. What is mentioned about the products sold at London Gifts?

- (A) Some of them have been exported abroad.
- (B) They are intended to have a higher quality than most souvenirs.
- (C) Some of them have been designed by Stephanie Blanc.
- (D) They are more expensive than items available at tourist sites.

183. Where does Sarah Broadhurst work?

- (A) In Birmingham
- (B) In London
- (C) In Manchester
- (D) In Southampton

184. What does Ms. Broadhurst mention in her e-mail?

- (A) She plans to offer bulk orders to stores needing a supplier.
- (B) Her business has a Web site with product descriptions and prices.
- (C) She will send some samples to Southern Clothing in the mail.
- (D) Some of her items have a British theme.

185. What does Ms. Broadhurst offer to do for Ms. Blanc?

- (A) Deliver some housewares from a store in Manchester
- (B) Draw up a tentative supply contract
- (C) Bring selections of merchandise to London
- (D) Do some personalized engraving services

Questions 186-190 refer to the following e-mail, Web page, and review.

To: Rica Foust <ricafoust@gmail.com>
 From: Casey Whitmore <caseywhitmore@planetvoyage.com>
 Subject: Review
 Date: August 5

Hi Rica,

I have something you may be interested in. It relates to solo travel, which has become increasingly popular lately. To keep up with this growing trend, we would like to feature a review of a cruise that offers solo travel in our next issue. Would you be willing to take this assignment? Naturally, we will cover all expenses. Since we are pressed for time, you will have to sign up as soon as possible. Your review would be published in the September issue, so we would need the first draft by August 13.

Let me know if this is possible.

The Solo Traveler: Seabird Ocean Liners

By Rica Foust

Seabird Ocean Liners offers getaways from Los Angeles to a variety of destinations on the West Coast of North America. I booked myself a three-night cruise from Los Angeles to Baja, and must say that the experience was well worth the cost of the trip. The rooms were modern, comfortable, and spacious for a cruise ship. Housekeeping was exceptional and my stateroom was always clean.

Although smaller than some cruise liners, the vessel I took boasts a modest pool, a restaurant, and a recreational deck. Because of the vessel's size, I found it easy to get the crew's attention and to get to know my fellow passengers. In fact, I made several new friends on the trip. If you're not the outgoing type, the crew organizes fun activities designed to help passengers relax around one another. Now, whether your goal as a solo traveler is to enjoy time alone or to meet new people, I think you will be satisfied with the overall experience. Taken against the backdrop of Baja's beautiful scenery, it was one I will remember for years to come.

186. Why did Mr. Whitmore write to Ms. Foust?

- (A) To complain about a trip he took
- (B) To schedule an interview for an article
- (C) To assign an article for a future publication
- (D) To ask her to attend a business meeting

187. Which sail date did Ms. Foust most likely reserve?

- (A) August 3
- (B) August 7
- (C) August 13
- (D) August 16

188. What is indicated about Seabird Ocean Liner?

- (A) Its cruise ships were built earlier in the year.
- (B) It accepts trip bookings online.
- (C) It has added extra destinations.
- (D) Its trips to Baja will be discontinued soon.

189. In the review, the word "exceptional" in paragraph 1, line 4, is closest in meaning to

- (A) superb
- (B) abnormal
- (C) crucial
- (D) expected

190. What can be inferred about Ms. Foust?

- (A) She had to pay extra for some activities.
- (B) Her room was smaller than those of fellow passengers.
- (C) She plans on returning to Baja on another cruise.
- (D) Her room was equipped with a television.

To Whom It May Concern,

I ordered a Flash-805 distance recorder on your Web site this morning. My order number is 7891000. I told my coworker about my purchase, and she is also interested in ordering the same item since you offer the lowest price she has found on the Web. In addition, she was intrigued by its ability to reduce distortion automatically. I was wondering whether I could simply add her recorder to my current order. If so, would there be an additional fee to do that? We just wanted to see if we could save on shipping. Even if you cannot change my order, my friend will go ahead with the purchase anyway. I hope to hear from you today so that my friend can take advantage of this limited-time offer.

Sincerely,

Chris Altman

191. What is NOT mentioned about the Flash-805 distance recorder?

- (A) It can be assembled manually by the user.
- (B) It accurately duplicates the original sound.
- (C) Its battery lasts longer than older models.
- (D) It is capable of deleting undesired noise.

192. What must customers do to take advantage of a special offer?

- (A) Download an online coupon
- (B) Purchase a quantity of two or more items
- (C) Place an order within specific amount of time
- (D) Provide proof of residence within Bournemouth

193. What is suggested about Mr. Altman?

- (A) He will have three days to cancel his order.
- (B) He wants to use another delivery company.
- (C) He requested expedited delivery.
- (D) He is working on a research project.

194. What is the purpose of the e-mail?

Questions 196-200 refer to the following announcement, form, and message.

Enter O-Deli's "Name Our Sandwich" Competition and Win $1,000!

O-Deli's will be introducing its newest sandwich sensation on February 1! This delicious combination of toasted rye bread, roasted turkey, spicy sauce, melted cheddar cheese, and fresh lettuce and onions still doesn't have a name! And that's where you come in. Customers can head to any O-Deli's branch in New York State and try out this incredible new menu item. Taste it, come up with a name for it, and submit an entrance form at any one of our sixteen branches. The winner not only will receive a cash prize of $1,000, but all three finalists will receive a voucher for a weekly complimentary sandwich at any O-Deli's location for one year! And upon submission of an application form, everyone entering will also be given a coupon for a free medium size beverage at our establishments.

O-Deli's "Name Our Sandwich" Competition: Application form

Name: Cheryl Posen
E-mail: cherposen@anypost.com
Mobile: 555-0293

Date of Application: February 18
Location of Outlet: 45th Avenue, New York City

Describe the sandwich to us in your own words:

This delightful sandwich makes a spicy, fresh addition to any lunch. The tangy cheese complements the meat, and its $4.89 price is a great value.

Please give us your suggestion for a sandwich name (5 words or less):

Red Hot Turkey Sandwich

Three finalists will be notified by text message and receive invitations to a special promotional event to celebrate the launch of the new sandwich. The event will be held on February 28, when the winner will be announced.

FROM: O-Deli's (555-2737)

TO: Ray Colsen (555-0320), Amos Vaughn (555-3928), Fiona Henry (555-6554)

Hello finalists! Thank you all for confirming your attendance to the event. Unfortunately, there has been a change we need to notify you of. We had planned to hold the event at our 59th Street location, but that branch has been experiencing some electrical problems. So, we will announce the winner at our 45th Avenue branch instead. Please confirm as soon as possible whether or not you can still attend. If you need assistance with transportation to the new site for the event, let us know and we can make arrangements for you. We apologize for the inconvenience and hope to see you all there.

196. What is the announcement mainly about?

- (A) A new franchise branch
- (B) A naming contest
- (C) A discounted menu item
- (D) A cooking competition

197. What is indicated about O-Deli's on the announcement?

- (A) It operates multiple locations within a state.
- (B) It recently announced plans to open new branches.
- (C) It is currently not open for business.
- (D) It regularly sponsors monthly competitions.

198. What did Ms. Posen probably receive?

- (A) A personalized sandwich
- (B) A cash prize for a contest
- (C) A coupon for a complimentary drink
- (D) A list of new menu items

199. What can be inferred about Mr. Vaughn?

- (A) He did not get an invitation letter sent in February.
- (B) He agreed to attend an event at 59th Street on February 28.
- (C) He is a frequent diner at O-Deli's restaurants.
- (D) He sent a message requesting special assistance.

200. Why has O-Deli's changed its plans for an event?

- (A) An important executive will be unable to attend.
- (B) A space is not large enough for participants.
- (C) A technical concern has occurred at a venue.
- (D) A transport provider became unavailable.

This is the end of the test. You may review Part 5, 6, and 7 if you finish the test early.
